The weekly edition is 1000—41 quires—larger than that of any other in the State, and twice as large as more than half the others. It is sent regularly to every village and post office on Fox and Wolf rivers, and Lake Winnebago, from Green Bay to Fort Winnebago, and from Fond du Lac to Lake Shawno, and Stephens' Point on the Wisconsin, and circulates extensively in Fond du Lac, Dodge, Columbia, Marquette, Portage, Waushara, Waupaca, Outagamie, Brown and Calumet counties; and to every precinct in its own (Winnebago) county.
☞ What is said here of its circulation and comparative merits, as an advertising medium, is susceptible of positive demonstration to all who may desire it.

The Daily Democrat.

John P. Hale.
Milwaukee, Oct. 14.

On my way home, I have stopped over to see the celebrated John P. Hale. He spoke twice yesterday.

He came in from Waukesha, in a carriage, and was met at the Cold Spring House, by an escort of forty horsemen.

He arrived at Gardiner's Hall at nearly 4 o'clock, in the afternoon, and found it crowded to overflowing with men and woman who had waited an hour for his arrival. He spoke about thirty-five minutes in the most eloquent strain I ever heard. He excused himself from speaking longer, on account of the time, and said he would speak again in the evening.

When he had closed, an old lady came up to the platform, took Mr. Hale's hand, and cried out "Bless God!" A venerable old man of 70 years, walked up to him, took both his hands said, "I thank God that he has preserved me to take you by the hand today."

I mention those incidents to show something of the effect of his manner.

In the evening he spoke at Market Hall. There were half more to hear him than were to hear Douglas. He spoke two hours, in the most lucid, effective manner upon the "Responsibilities of the Individual." He was listened to with the most profound attention. His remarks were adapted to kindle a generous emotion in the soul of the most callensed man of the world. He addressed the consciences of men, and inspired an aspiration for the True and the Good.—He was at times full of humor and wit, but it was of the holy kind—it made all feel better, feel a desire to do and be better.

I have enjoyed a rare treat in staying to hear and see him.—J. D.—Oshkosh Dem.

ABOLITION.—Every where and every day we hear it said, "Slavery is very bad. We hate it. But it can't be helped." Can't be helped! What! is there no God! And what then is the use of the religion upon which we expend so much time and money? But it can be helped; and that noble act of British Emancipation proves the possibility.

In that book which was published by the two gentlemen who visited the British West Indies to learn the result of emancipation, and which the Hon. Edward Everett said (and it liked to have cost him the mission to England for daring to say as much) that it proved Abolition to be feasible—in that book, you recollect (the statement is too striking ever to be forgotten) that in the Island of Antigua, which has 30,000 whites and 70,000 blacks, and which was the only island that accepted the act of emancipation unconditionly, without any previous apprenticeship system, the next Christmas after the act went into effect, was the first Christmas for many years when it was not necessary to call out the military to preserve order. A fact like this speaks volumes as to the safety of Abolition.—W. H. Furness.

TURKS AND TEA.—The following curious description of a Turkish tea-party is given on the authority of a recent traveler. The writer had just dined with the Turks, and thought to give a treat in his turn:

"As we had brought apparatus in our baggage, we now procured some hot water, and entertained our hosts with a dish of tea, which they had heard of, but never tasted. We sweetened a cup in the most approved manner with sugar, and softened it with milk, and then presented it. A Turk never tastes anything of this kind but coffee without milk or sugar, which is as black, thick, and bitter as soot; when therefore he filled his mouth with the mawkish mixture we made for him, his distress was quite ridiculous.—He could not swallow it, and he would not it out, for a Turk never spits in company; so he kept it churning in his mouth till he could keep it no longer; he then made a pretext for going out, which he did as fast as a Turk can move, and got rid of it over the stairs.

A LEARNED IRISH JUDGE, among other peculiarities, had a habit of begging pardon on every occasion. Once his favorite expression was employed in rather a singular manner. At the close of the assizes, as he was about to leave the bench, the officer of the court reminded him that he had not passed sentence of death on one of the criminals, as he had intended. "Dear me," said his lordship, "I beg his pardon—bring him out."

Election, Tues. Nov. 2.

☞ Read carefully the article in another column, re-published to-day, in reference to the claims and qualifications of the three different candidates for Congress.

First Ward Nomination.

The Free Democrats of the First Ward met, last evening, at the Court House, and nominated EDWIN PALMER as a candidate for the Assembly. It is an excellent selection. Mr. Palmer is well known to our citizens as a man of capacity, energy, integrity, good judgment, independent in spirit, upright in purpose, and identified in all his interests with the growing prosperity of this city. As a master-builder and mechanic he has constructed some of the most beautiful and substantial edifices in this city. He has had a large number of men in his employ, and they will all testify that he is a practical believer in the doctrine that the laborer is worthy of his hire. If elected, he would make a faithful and most useful member of the Legislature, and the interests of the First Ward might be safely trusted in his hands. If those who wish to see a good, thorough business man represent them will bestir themselves, and work with a hearty good will, he can be elected.

☞ A. L. Collins, Esq., of Madison, has declined the nomination for the Assembly, on account of professional engagements.

☞ The Prairie Farmer, for October, is full of interest. It is an excellent Agricultural Journal, and worthy of the extensive patronage it receives.

THE THREE CANDIDATES---DURAND, WELLS AND DURKEE.

Messrs. Durand, Wells and Durkee, are before the people of this District, as candidates for election to Congress. Let us look at their qualifications and claims.

Henry S. Durand.

MR. DURAND is a merchant of Racine, of fair character and abilities. He has no experience as a public man, and has never been a member of any Legislative body. He would therefore, if elected, have all the disadvantages of an inexperienced man, entirely unacquainted with the business of Legislation. But it is useless to discuss his claims. For notwithstanding the very free use of money on his part—we speak understandingly—he cannot be elected. Every vote cast for him which would be given to Durkee, is a vote worse than thrown away, for it aids the election of Wells.

Daniel Wells, Jr.

MR. WELLS is well known in this community as a sharp and successful business man, who has always looked out for number one, and whose great aim has been to get the best end of every bargain. And there are many in our midst, who, from their own experience, can give him a certificate of his skill and success in such efforts. He has never done anything personally or politically, for anybody but Daniel Wells, Jr. A man of large wealth, what public enterprize was ever warmed into life, or fostered to maturity by his munificence? He was elected to the Territorial Legislature in 1838, but his legislative career was distinguished by nothing in particular, except some sly movements, by which he killed the measures he professed to advocate. In Maine he was known as a Whig, but he changed his politics, as some birds of passage do their colors, in moving to another climate. He procured the nomination to Congress—according to the testimony of his own political friends—by going through the District, and getting delegates packed to support him, and since his nomination he has pursued the same course. He declined Mr. Durkee's invitation to meet him publicly before the people, and define his position and defend his principles, and let the public judge between them. But he has gone round privately through the District, making personal solicitations and private pledges, and using money without stint, to secure his election. Without any well-defined political principles, or any claims to the office of Representative, his only recommendations are that he goes with the party, is regularly nominated, stands on the Baltimore Platform, and, if elected, will sustain the Compromise Measures and the Fugitive Slave Law, and give the Slaveholders all they ask for.

Charles Durkee.

Mr. Durkee is well known to the people of this District. A native of Vermont, bred to the mercantile profession, he emigrated to Wisconsin in 1836, and has since devoted his energies to promote the best interests of his adopted State. A Democrat by instinct, constitution, and principle, every feeling of his heart is in sympathy with the people, and he could not betray their interests or be faithless to their rights without denying his own nature. Generous, open-hearted, without disguise, and without concealment, every man in the District knows, or may know his opinion on all public questions, for he goes before the people, and declares his thoughts, and invites them to question him on any topic of public interest.

He was chosen a member of the Territorial Legislature in 1838, and afterward sent as an agent by his own constituents to attend to their business at Washington. He was one of the original proprietors of Kenosha, and instead of holding on to his land, for purposes of speculation, he sold it out in lots to industrious mechanics, at a merely nominal price, and furnished many of them with the means of building houses upon them, waiting upon them till they could repay him from the avails of their own labor. And the best testimony to his character is the vote of his town and the estimation in which he is held by the laboring people. The adopted citizens of Kenosha—German and Irish—are his warmest friends, and the Irishmen of his town published a stirring address to their countrymen, two years ago, testifying to his special kindness towards them, repelling the calumnies of his enemies, and exhorting their friends to vote for him. Where he is best known, he is most beloved.

Mr. Durkee has always been a public spirited man. He gave $2,500 to Lawrence University in the Northern part of the State, and has contributed liberally to all objects of public interest. In short he is a man, whom the people can trust, and have trusted safely with their public interests. He has twice been elected to Congress, by a decisive vote. He has been faithful to Freedom, when many professed friends turned traitors.

This is the man whom Free men have presented to the people of this District for re-election. He is the only candidate who can be trusted to stand up against the encroachments of Slavery. Both the other candidates are bound to the old parties which are controlled by Slaveholders, and, if elected, must do the bidding of their parties and vote for Slave-holding Speakers. They represent the Baltimore Platforms,—Mr. Durkee represents the Pittsburgh Platform.—A rejection of Mr. Durkee would be an endorsement of the Slave Compromise Measures, and a repudiation of their Free Principles by the people of this District. The re-election of Mr. Durkee will be the re-affirmation of their Free Principles—will be a glorious testimony in behalf of Freedom, Free Homes, and Free Men,—will maintain the character of this District at home and abroad, and secure us a MAN in Congress who is an honor to his constituents and to his race, and the pride of all Liberty-loving men, who are laboring to bless mankind.

Fourth Ward Caucus---Mr. Palmer.

The Hunker Democrats of the 4th Ward, last evening, nominated H. L. Palmer, Esq., as a candidate for the Assembly. His competitor was D. E. Cameron, Esq., who received about 60 votes, and Mr. Palmer about 80.

Mr. Palmer was defeated, last year, in this Assembly District, comprising the 4th and 5th Wards, but he received 100 majority in this Ward—now constituting an Assembly District. He, however, received the support of the Free Soilers, on the ground of having drafted the Free Soil Resolutions of the Democratic County Convention two years ago, and giving assurances that he still maintained the same sentiments. These Resolutions re-affirmed the Madison platform of 1849, in which the Hunker Democracy undertook to steal all the Free Soil thunder, and also pledged the party to the unalterable determination to use all honorable means to secure the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law.

As we understand that Mr. Palmer has recently denied that he ever had any sympathy for Free Soil principles, as held by the Free Democratic party, and claims to have been a consistent supporter of the Fugitive Slave Law throughout, we re-publish the Resolutions which he himself drafted for the County Convention, two years ago, the principles of which he assured us, just one year ago, he still maintained.

These Resolutions—remember—are Mr. Palmer's own work, the product of his own mind, the expression of his own faith at that time. They are our own sentiments to-day. Where Mr. Palmer stood but one year ago, we stand now. Who has changed?

After re-adopting the Resolutions of the Democratic State Convention of 1849, the the record proceeds thus:

Resolved, That the foregoing Resolutions, adopted by the last Democratic State Convention held in this State, are a frank and truthful avowal of the principles of the Democracy of Wisconsin, and are entitled to, and receive the cordial support of this Convention, and we hereby declare our firm conviction that a faithful adherence to the principles therein annunciated by the Democrats of every section of the State will best promote the best interests of the whole country.

Resolved, That in our judgment the Fugitive Slave Law, so called, passed at the recent session of Congress, is unjust in itself, oppressive in its operation, and an unwarrantable infringement of individual rights, and that while we deprecate armed resistance to it so long as it remains upon the statute book, as the enactment of the supreme legislative power of the country, we are constrained to express our condemnation of it, and our unalterable determination to use all honorable means to secure its repeal.

We leave the whole matter, without comment, to the unbiassed judgment of all reflecting men.

Assembly Convention.

At a Convention of the Free Democracy of the Northwest Assembly District, held at the Washington House, in the village of Black Earth, Dane Co., on Saturday, Oct. 23, BRONSON GRAVES was called to the Chair, and EDWARD BARBER appointed Secretary.

On motion, the Chair appointed O. B. Hauseltine, H. Holbrook and J. G. Peck as a Committee on Resolutions, who made the following report.

Whereas, The Whig and Democratic parties at Baltimore, in National Convention assembled, adopted and approved the Fugitive Slave Law, and supported it as a final settlement of the question of Slavery; We the free people of the Northwest Assembly District in Dane county deem it expedient to organize in favor of Freedom. Therefore

Resolved, That the Fugitive Slave Law is an unconstitutional trespass upon the rights of Freemen, and we demand its unconditional repeal.

Resolved, That we will not support either of the Platforms adopted at Baltimore by supporting men bound to carry out the principles of those platforms.

Resolved, That we prefer the platform of principles presented by the Pittsburgh Convention as by far the best now presented to the American people.

Resolved, That we pledge our suffrages in support of men of moral independence enough to carry out the principles of said Pittsburgh Convention.

After a formal ballot the Chair declared Mr. A. H. HOLBROOK unanimously nominated for the Assembly to be supported at the ensuing election.

The following persons were appointed a District Committee: Saml Barber, J. W. Ford and Mr. Sanford.

Voted, That the editor of the Mil. Free Democrat be requested to publish the proceedings of this Convention in his paper.

The Convention Adjourned sine die.

B. GRAVES, Ch'n.

ED. BARBER, Sec'y.

At a meeting of the Free Democracy for the Madison Assembly District, held at the Court-House on Saturday last, A. WILCOX, Esq., was called to the Chair, and C. H BILLINGS, Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Enos, the Convention proceeded to ballot for a person to represent this Assembly District in the next Legislature.

The 2d ballot resulted in the nomination of J. D. Honn, Esq., of Madison.

C. H. Billings and J. D. Honn, were appointed a District Committee for the ensuing year. (Adj'd.)

A. WILCOX. Ch'n.

C. H. BILLINGS, Sec'y.

Mr. ENOS writes us that the County is now organized, and that though their numbers are comparatively few, yet they have good courage and are determined to keep the ball rolling, in old Dane, till they triumph. That's the right spirit.

Jefferson Co. Free Democratic Convention.

At a meeting of the Free Democracy of Jefferson County, held at Jefferson, Oct. 25, GERARD CUTLER, of Lake Mills, was called to the Chair, and J. F. OSTRANDER, of Aztalan, appointed Clerk. On motion, it was

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to make a nomination for county officers.

Jeremiah Brayton, Aztalan; G. W. Bishop, Lake Mills; B. F. Pixley, Oakland; Bomus Foster, Waterloo; James Crane, Koskonong; Peleg Carr, Palmyra; Elias Schuyler, Aztalan; D. E. King, Cold Spring; A. F. Snell, of Jefferson, were chosen such committee.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to report resolutions for the meeting.

J. F. Ostrander, Samuel Hoyt, and Gerard Cutler were appointed such committee.

The following list of nominees was presented by the committee and adopted by the Convention:

For Sheriff—Alex'r J. Craig, Palmyra.
Register—Royal Tyler, Lake Mills.
Clk of Court—H. B. Willard, Aztalan.
Treasurer—David Wood, Koskonong.
Clk B'd Sup.—G.W. Bishop, Lake Mills.
Coroner—S. H. Depuy, Sullivan.
Surveyor—A. Waldo, Sullivan.
Dist. Att'y—Geo. C. Smith, Oakland.
Member of Congress—Hiram McKee.

The committe on resolutions reported the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, That the time has fully come when all "good men and true," of every party, are loudly called upon to lift up a standard against the corrupt legislation imposed upon the people of the U. S., as made abundantly manifest in the passage of the "Compromise Acts," including the infamous Fugitive Slave Law, and subsequently sanctioned and endorsed by the delegates of both the Whig and Democratic parties in convention at Baltimore, with expressed determination to perpetuate said laws, and suppress (as far as in their power) all agitation in reference to them.

Resolved, That as Northern Freemen, when called upon to sustain parties that have proved recreant to the high trusts committed to them, our emphatic answer is—No! never!

Resolved, That the acts of Congress known as the "Compromise Measures," are not received or acquiesced in as a final settlement, in principle or substance, of the subjects to which they relate, and cannot, with fidelity to the constitution, be "adhered to." We therefore "deprecate" the carrying out of these measures, and will "resist" at the ballot-box all men and all parties who seek to fasten them on the country, "under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made."

Resolved, That time and experience has already demonstrated the necessity of further legislation on the subject of the Fugitive Slave Law. Its suppression of the right of trial by jury—its suspension of the habeas corpus—its encroachments upon the rights of the States—its bribe of $5 to an already party-bought and corrupt commissioner—its remanding already four free persons of the first eight into servitude, is sufficient evidence to us of the need of further legislation, viz: total repeal.

Resolved, That our principles in reference to other great interests of the country are satisfactorily set forth in the platform adopted by the Pittsburgh Convention.

Resolved, That in JOHN P. HALE, of New Hampshire, we have a standard-bearer of tried integrity, of unimpeachable character, who cannot be frightened by Southern nabobs, nor corrupted by Northern doughfaces, and we pledge him our undivided and hearty support.

Resolved, That in GEORGE W. JULIAN, of Indiana, our candidate for Vice President, we recognize the man of progress, too independent for party traces, and a true representative of the Young and Free Democracy.

Resolved, That in Hiram McKee, the candidate of the Free Democracy for the Third Congressional District, we recognize a talented, laborious, self-denying and true friend of equal rights for all men, and as such shall give him our hearty support.

Resolved, That the idea so prevalent among the adherents of the old parties of supporting the nominee of a party, and spitting upon their platform, is a piece of inconsistency too glaring for any man not too soo and despise, who is not already blinded by prejudice, or a slave to party ties.

An executive committee, consisting of S. Hoyt, S. W. Bishop and A. L. Atwood were then appointed.

A corresponding committee of one from each town in the county, with power too fill vacancies, were then appointed, consisting of J. W. Hoyt, of Oakland; J. F. Ostrander, of Aztalan; James Crane, of Koskonong; S. H. Depuy, of Sullivan; Peleg Carr, of Palmyra; D. King, of Cold Spring; T. Plumb, of Milford; G. C. Smith, of Oakland; A. F. Snell, of Jefferson; D. Stiles, of Waterloo; C. Ludden, of Ixonia; and S. Hodges, of Lake Mills; when the convention was addressed by Byron Paine, of Milwaukee, followed by Hiram McKee.

The proceedings were ordered to be printed, and the Convention adjourned.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Circuit Court for Washington county, Judge Larrabee presiding, is in session at Port Washington.

Union Saving.

The Sentinel publishes a long silly article without credit, from the Cincinnati Gazette, and of course endorsing it, charging the Free Soilers with desiring and endeavoring to dissolve the Union, and calling upon them to remain in the pro-Slavery parties because Christ said the tares and wheat should grow together till the harvest—that is, the righteous and the wicked should be permitted to live together in the world.

Why, Dear Mr. Sentinel, the Free Soilers have no idea of leaving the world in a hurry, as long as there are so many benighted Hunkers, as this article indicates, needing our labors.

The silly twaddle about dissolving the Union, will do for dough-faces and slave-ocrats, but shame on a higher law, Seward Whig press for endorsing or circulating it.

What renders it supremely ridiculous is, it represents our connection with Slavery as "a marriage relation," as close and intimate as that of husband and wife, thus making us equal partners in the guilt and shame of slavery, and then calls on us to hug this damning iniquity to our bosoms, exhorts us, by the authority of Christ, not to seek to divorce ourselves from it, but to fellowship it, vote for it and the party which upholds it, and has sworn to make it perpetual, through all coming time. And to make assurance doubly sure, and to cap the climax of impudence, it charges upon Free Soilers the passage of the Compromise measures and the Fugitive Slave Law, and declares that "Slavery is beyond our control, by any means short of Revolution"

Hold, thou miserable coward! The Slave Power has molded thee into its own likeness, and the Sentinel sets thee up in its sanctum, as its tutelar divinity! Let us all call on Bust, and put our trust in Doughfaces!!

INTERROGATING.—"Many Democrats," through the medium of the Morning News, propound the following questions:

"Have you directly or indirectly made any promise or pledge to the present Sheriff of said county and his Jailor, or to either of them, or to any person for them, that you will give them or either of them any place, office, station, or appointment under you as Sheriff, in the event of your election; or will you in that event give them or either of them any such place, office or appointment?"

It seems that "Many Democrats" will support Mr. Page in the event of his giving the above a negative reply; but if an affirmative answer is given, their votes will probably be cast for another man. Now-a-days candidates for office are subjected to the severest catechising, and if they don't emerge from this ordeal without "spot or blemish," there are many chances of their being laid out hastily on their political bier, without even being permitted a decent burial. We don't complain of this; it's all right; let the people mould the pliant dough according to their own liking if they can; and they often succeed.

Uniting the Elements.

The democracy—if there be any—in the Fifth Ward, meet this evening to cook up matters preparatory to the caucus to nominate an assemblyman on Friday night. The constituents of Hunkerism in that Ward are so much decayed, so badly deranged and possess so little affinity that it is quite doubtful whether anything in the shape of a respectable democratic party can be formed from them.

The principal Democratic aspirants for the Assembly, are Lawyer Webster, and our old firm and inflexible Free Soil friend, S. H. Martin, whom we especially recommend to the tender mercies of the good people of that district. He is a tried man, and has been sorely tempted a great many times.

☞ The Morning News is more and more grandiloquent over Pierce and King, but has not a word to say for Daniel Wells, Jr.—Has Mr. Wells taken the advice of some leading Democrats and hired it to say nothing in his behalf?

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I am a Scott man, so far as preferring his election to that of Gen. Pierce, will make me such, and it has been my intention to vote for him in preference to either of the other two candidates for the Presidency; not that I thought him a better or as good a man for the office as J. P. Hale, but because, he in my view, is not as bad on the great and only question which now agitates this nation, as the Democratic candidate. He has not bowed down so contemptibly low, to that curse of curses, the Slave-Power, as Mr. Pierce has. These, then, were some of my reasons for the course I intended to take, choosing of the two evils the least; but recent elections in some of the States, which I thought sure to go for Scott, show it utterly impossibly for him to be elected, indeed, I doubt his getting a single State.

Many have reasons like myself, and come to the same conclusion as to whom they would vote for, and it is not an uncommon declaration for persons to make, that, "If my vote would elect Hale, he should freely have it." Now I have come to this conclusion, that as Scott cannot be elected, to go heart, hand and vote for the man who has stood up nobly in defence of human rights, that has never bent the knee to the great Moloch of oppression and wrong which has no parallel in the world's history. It is unnecessary to speak of his ability or honesty; it is written in every act of his life. Then, friends, as Scott cannot be elected, let us, if we must be in the minority (and we need not) vote for the man of our choice, JOHN P. HALE.—Cleveland True Dem.

We learn from the Cleveland Plaindealer, that a boy in that city named James Franklin, died a few days ago from the effects of excess in eating chestnuts. He ate two quarts.

Some time ago, a lady residing in Boston, loaned a man $32. to assist him to go to California. She had the gratification a few days since of receiving a letter from the person she had obliged, stating that he was doing finely, and enclosing her $500.

WORK! WORK!! WORK!!!

There is not one week now to the Election, and whatever is done for the cause of Freedom, before the verdict is rendered at the polls, must be done during the next four working days. The great strife, in this District, on the part of the Hunkers, will be to defeat Durkee. The mass of the Whigs in the county and a majority in this city, prefer Durkee to Wells. And yet those who want to pull the wool over their eyes for the sake of electing Wells, are endeavoring to make them believe that Durand can be elected, when they know he stands a better chance of being translated without seeing death, as Elijah was, than he does of being elected to Congress. Now let our friends everywhere present the true issue: Durkee or Wells is to be the next Congressman for this District. Get the real facts before every voter, and rally every man, who can be influenced by Truth and Liberty, to the support of the true and faithful Representative of the people, CHARLES DURKEE. Do this, and he will receive a triumphant majority.

AMMUNITION!

Get your votes printed in season, and put them into the right hands for distribution.—See that not a vote is lost for want of having tickets in season.

LOOK TO YOUR TICKETS!

All sorts of split tickets will be in the field. Vote as you please, but read your ticket, and see that it has on it the names of all the candidates you wish to vote for.

VOTE EARLY!

Vote the first thing in the morning, and then get all the men to vote for Hale, Durkee, and Freedom.

GET OUT THE VOTERS!

See that every man who can be persuaded to vote for Freedom is got to the polls. If any are unable to come to the polls, let conveyances be provided to bring them.

TICKET DISTRIBUTORS!

Ticket Distributors should be appointed for every poll, who will stand there from the opening till the closing of the polls. There should be half a dozen, at least, at each poll and some of them should be able to speak the German language. They should be men of mind and will who cannot be intimidated or brow-beaten, and will stand up inflexibly for the Freedom ticket.

DON'T BE CHEATED!

There will be all sorts of trading. Wells's friends in one Ward have offered to support a Whig Assemblyman for votes for Wells.—See that Durkee is not traded off for anybody. The great effort in this city will be to defeat Durkee. The Hunkers will sell any thing for that. Check-mate all such attempts.

WATCH THE POLLS!

Hundreds of illegal votes are polled at every election. See that all vote who have a right to, and challenge every man who offers an illegal vote. Be on hand from morning till night.

☞ The weather is still dark, moist and gloomy, but the lake which rolled up its white-crested waves, lashing the shore with fury yesterday has become more quiet, and boats again left port this morning.

The Schooner Juniatta Patton is still aground, but will probably be got off without much difficulty. She had on board 100 tons merchantize.

FIFTH WARD.—William A. Hawkins, it will be seen by his card, is an independent candidate for the Assembly in the Fifth Ward. He is a capable, straight-forward man, who lives above ground, and is not related to the burrowing tribe.

The Hunkers have some debts to pay in that Ward, but we can't tell whether they will redeem their promises, till we see whom they nominate for the Assembly.

POLICE COURT.—A man known under the cognomen of Joe Ryan, who keeps a boarding house in Huron street in the 3d Ward, was tried before the Police Court this forenoon on charge of having pilfered $25 from the pocket of a man, from Lisbon, who put up with him over night; and after a thorough examination was discharged. A free use of liquor was the cause of the difficulty.

☞ We learn by telegraph that the vessels bound for Chicago, yesterday, all made the harbor without difficulty, and that no vessel was known to be wrecked.

HOSE CO.—The Supply Hose Company hold their annual election on the 25th inst., and made choice of the following officers:—

John C. Starkweather, Foreman.

John Davis, Ass't "

B. B. Bird, Secretary.

☞ The Whig convention to nominate officers, meet at 12 o'clock to-day at the Court House.

CUTLERY.—F. J. BLAIR has someting to say in our Advertising columns, of special interest to the people in general, and housekeepers in particular, which we advise them not to overlook.

TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS worth of Staple Dry Goods now receiving direct from Boston, and New York, which I will sell at a very small profit for cash. Some one or two of my fellow merchants are little vexed because I sell goods so cheap. I cannot help it. I have no one to divide profits with, and of course I can sell cheaper, and I presume I bought my goods very cheap, as I paid cash for a large portion of them. CALEB WALL,

TO THE PUBLIC.

IN presenting this advertisement, I do not want you to look at it and say "ANOTHER HUMBUG." Not so! for facts will speak for themselves. It is a very common thing now-a-days to get up tremendous large show bills, trying to excite the community by promising great and monstrous things. I desire to do nothing of the kind. I simply want to state that I spent some two or three weeks or more in New York and Boston, purchasing Staple Dry Goods calculated for the trade of Wisconsin; which goods were purchased of the First Class of Houses, at the lowest possible prices, and many of them were purchased for Cash and on very short time. Now I want to sell these Goods in the same way, and I will sell them at a very small profit. I know not how other merchants sell their goods, nor do I know how they purchased them. They understand their business and are clever fellows. But this one fact let me state. I have no one to divide the profits with, and I sell no goods upon risk; therefore I can sell goods at a much smaller profit than if I had two or three partners to divide profits with. What I want is this; those who purchase goods for cash, or have Wheat or Flour to exchange for goods, call and see whether what I state is true or not. Never mind what any one says. Come and let your own eyes and judgment be your guides. I have facilities and arrangements made for any quantity of goods and at prices that every one will be satisfied with. All my goods are staple, and I am satisfied that a better assortment of the same description of goods cannot be found in the City of Milwaukee. So remember the City Cash Auction Store. CALEB WALL,

Never mind what any one may say, I have a broad back and can stand most anything that may be said, for I have been nearly twenty years in the West, and have got used to talk. For the Free Democrat.

TO GEORGE W. JULIAN.

Look up, thou champion of thy race,
In Freedom's holy cause;
Thou hast the sanction of thy God,
Promulgating His laws.
Thou darest truly to be free
In this unhallowed age,
When might, not right, the watchword seems,
And sin our heritage.

Look up, there is a beacon star
In yon horizon set,
And though it burns but dimly now,
'Twill blaze with glory yet.
For God, who made our world of light,
To man, his blessing gave;
And while to us the boon was mind,
Did he forget the Slave?

Look up, for sure as Mercy hath
A lodgment in our land—
Or Justice is omnipotent
In the Almighty's hand—
The day must come, when all who bear
The image of a God,
Can boldly stand erect and say
We fear no tyrant's rod.

Look up, the stain upon our flag
Is fading from the view;
And soon the Stars and Stripes shall wave
O'er Freemen staunch and true.
Then shall the nations of the earth,
Our bright ascendency see;
And deify that sacred name,
The name of Liberty.

GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION. This great work can be had at OTT'S Bookstore, 275 East Water street. It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:

"This admirable work is at length before us, and we hasten to inform our readers of this valuable addition, which has thus been made to the Literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself, combined and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will, no doubt, prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matter of which it treats."—Truth Teller. april22

SLOAN'S LIFE SYRUP

IS altogether superior to any Medicine heretofore discovered for the rapid cure of Colds, Coughs, Influenza, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, also for all diseases which originate from impurity of the blood, to wit: Salt Rheum, Mercurial, Syphilitic or Venereal, and Eruptive, or Diseases of the Skin, as Blotches, Pimples or Pustules, and all Itching Eruptions, Chronic Inflammation of the Liver, White Swellings, Necrosis or Fever Sores, Rickets, Fistula, and King's Evil; in short, in every taint in the System or Blood, from whatever cause it may arise, or of however long standing, this medicine will be found far superior to any other remedy.

This Syrup rapidly imparts Purity and Vitality to the Blood, and action to the Liver, and thereby assists nature in throwing off disease.

Notwithstanding this Syrup is a powerful Curative, and invariably creates an appetite, gives tone and energy to the nervous system, and strengthens the whole body, yet it is mild in its action, and may be safely employed in the most delicate cases. It is agreeable to the taste and stomach, and in diseases of Women and Children, One Bottle of Sloan's Life Syrup will produce more real benefit than ten times the same quantity of any other preparation offered to the public. One table spoonful of this Syrup is all that is necessary to be given at a time, whereas, nearly all other preparations are recommended to be taken in large quantities, which seldom benefit the patient, and frequently overloads the stomach, and produces serious injury—consequently Sloan's Life Syrup, is not only the best medicine of the kind in use, but it is decidedly the cheapest. For Man, it has no equal, and is emphatically the Poor Man's Friend, and a superior Family Medicine.

THE DEMOCRACY OF CHRISTIANITY:

OR AN

ANALYSIS OF THE BIBLE AND ITS DOCTRINES, IN THEIR RELATION TO THE PRINCIPLE OF DEMOCRACY.

In Two Volumes, comprising 875 pages.

BY WM. GOODELL.

Published by Caly & Burgess, 60 John st., New-York.

THIS great work is strongly recommended by B. P. Aydelott, D. D., late President of Woodward College, Cincinnati; by Prof. Hudson, of Oberlin; by Hon. Amasa Walker, Secretary of State of Massachusetts, and by a great number of the first men of our country.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We have read the book through very attentively, and can bear testimony to its great ability, and the soundness of its principles. * * * The essay is a very able one, and well adapted, as Cobbett used to say, for a thinking people, and no fair minded and intelligent reader can rise from a perusal of it without a higher appreciation of the Mosaic code, and of true democratic principles."—N. Y. Tribune.

"This work appears anonymously, but it discloses qualities of authorship, of which the writer need not be ashamed. * * * He strikes at the root of the business at once. He traces the democratic principle as it is mingled in all God's provisions for the Patriarchs and the Israelites in the clearest manner. His analysis of the tendency and character of the Mosaic Institutes is particularly able. He discovers a degree of wisdom and benevolence in those provisions but little understood. We have never seen the political bearings and scope of the Mosaic law so strikingly portrayed. The present volume respects only the doctrines of the Old Testament—we hope the author will be encouraged to go on with the searching and impartial examination."—New York Evangelist.

"The author has given some beautiful illustrations, drawn from Scripture, showing that it abounds with democratic sentiment. * * * It is a work that should attract the attention of the thinking portion of society. The style is attractive, and the subject an interesting one."—American Statesman.

"This, 'Citizen of the United States' deserves a hearing. He is a strong thinker and an able writer—indeed he must be a man of great experience with the pen.—* * * Sweeping from Genesis onward, not a ray of light escapes him which can be construed into the dawning of those glorious popular institutions which we now enjoy. And he certainly finds a great deal to his purpose. * * * The truth is, the Mosaic code made advances towards democracy which stood alone for centuries, and when we take the strong glasses of such a writer as this our veneration of the Bible is placed on a very high footing."—Boston Chronotype.

"The subject of this volume is well handled, and justly pressed on the observation of the reader."—Democratic Review.

"We advise all classes to 'read, mark, and inwardly digest' this volume."—Ontario Messenger.

"The field of discussion opened is broad and rich; has been ably explored, and its treasures of precious truth are revealed with a master's hand."—Oberlin Evangelist.

"The conception of this work is original. * * * We commend it to the perusal and careful study of all classes."—Ohio Star.

"We have neither time nor space to give a general or extended notice of this invaluable production, but merely drop a hint, that our friends may not deprive themselves a single moment of a rich treat, but by fast hold of it now."—Golden Rule.
